Chiari Malformation is a serious neurological disorder which affects 300,000 people in the US. Symptoms can be severe and include crippling headaches, neck pain, balance problems, arm and leg weakness, and trouble walking; if left untreated Chiari can lead to paralysis. Most patients undergo traumatic brain surgery to try to relieve the symptoms. There is no cure. For more information, visit www.conquerchiari.org. Donations are tax deductible to the fullest extent allowed by law. All proceeds benefit Chiari research through the C&S Patient Education Foundation. See next page for more information about the C&S Patient Education Foundation.

The C&S Patient Education Foundation is a Pennsylvania nonprofit organization (501c3), which is dedicated to improving the experiences and outcomes of Chiari & syringomyelia patients through education, awareness, and research.

C&S Patient Education Foundation is located at 320 Osprey Court, Wexford, PA 15090, and may be reached at 724-940-0116.
